

Kindergarten

Belonging

First term is all about developing relationships and building a sense of belonging. Feeling secure and confident in their school environment, means that children can then explore and learn about their world.

Being

Being means having the chance to be yourself and follow your own interests. It is about enjoying and sharing time and experiences.

Tracking and tracing

First day photos

Counting with playdough

Pretend and role play shaving

Becoming

Children become confident, successful and informed learners!

