

Pre Kindergarten

Wednesday's are lots of fun! It has been lovely to watch the Pre Kindergarten students settle in to school life. Each week we have been so proud of the independence the students have developed. They are comfortable exploring and investigating both inside and outside the classroom. The students love going to library and selecting a new book each week.

